63 c) UPDATE ON CITY STRATEGIC PLANNING PROCESS

64 In 2022 and 2023, the City of Roseville undertook a year-long project called Envision Roseville, 65 with the goal of updating or reaffirming community aspirations and identifying strategic 66 directions for the City. The Envision Roseville project identified eight city aspirations, which the 67 Commission reviewed.

68
69 Following the conclusion of Envision Roseville, the City entered into an agreement with 70 Inspiring Site, a planning consultant, to develop a citywide strategic plan to guide the City's 71 efforts in achieving the community's aspirations. In late 2024 and early 2025, the City Council
72 and department heads participated in a series of facilitated work sessions. These sessions resulted 73 in a set of shared values—accountability, community, equity, safety, and integrity—as well as a
74 strategy tree that documented the City's values, mission, strategic directions, and vision: A
75 vibrant, safe, and inclusive community.

76
77 The Commission reviewed the six desired impact definitions for the strategic directions, with 78 special focus on the Parks and Natural Environment Strategic Direction: "Parks and natural
79 resources are preserved, maintained, and enhanced to ensure a broad cross-section of community
80 members actively use and participate in our parks, activities, and facilities."

81 The City is transitioning into the implementation phase, in which specific goals, objectives, and 82 performance indicators are identified. Specific data is being identified to show whether the goals
83 are being met, and work plans are being developed to operationalize the strategic vision.

84
85 Staff highlighted how the Parks and Recreation goals potentially align with key priorities and 86 discussed opportunities for Commission feedback.

87
88 The Commission discussed upcoming projects and potential Commission goals that may align 89 with the strategic plan. The Commission also noted its appreciation for the city's focus on 90 guiding principles and their use in planning and prioritizing.

91
92 d) PARKS AND RECREATION MASTER PLANNING CONVERSATION

93 Staff identified what a Master Plan is: a vision and long-term strategy, efficient resource
94 management, community engagement and inclusivity, adaptability to change, and accountability/
95 progress tracking. Staff provided background on the Roseville Parks and Recreation System
96 Master Plan (Master Plan). The Master Plan was adopted in 2010, following more than a year of 97 extensive community engagement. Roseville's Master Plan includes a situational parks system
98 assessment (at the time), benchmarking, goals, and policies. It set the goal of ensuring that 99 Roseville has a "world-class park system" by focusing on these key items:

- 100 • Parks and Recreation System Management
- 101 • Parks development, redevelopment, and rehabilitation
- 102 • Parks and open space acquisition
- 103 • Trails, pathways, and community connections
- 104 • Recreation programs and services
- 105 • Community facilities
- 106 • Natural resource management

107
108 The Commission reviewed the Community Engagement Recommendations from the Master
109 Plan, focusing on:

- 110 • Maintain and Enhance: Prioritize care for existing parks and facilities
- 111 • Connectivity: Expand pathways and sidewalks to link parks, neighborhoods, schools, and 112 transit.
- 113 • Land Acquisition: Secure key parcels to expand and enhance park use.

114
115 Major accomplishments of the Master Plan were discussed, including the well-funded Capital
116 Improvement Plan, the Parks Renewal Program (2013-2016), the new Cedarholm Community
117 Building (2018), new parks added to the system, infrastructure improvements, and the 2024
118 Natural Resources Master Plan.

120 In addition to the updates prescribed by the 2010 System Master Plan, staff noted that several 121 projects and facilities not originally included in the plan were completed in response to emerging
122 opportunities and resident demand. These included Unity Park (2018), a new inclusive
123 playground at Central Park (2021), and permanent pickleball courts at Evergreen Park (2022).
124

125 Staff noted that the Parks and Recreation System Master Plan was designed to guide system
126 updates for 20 years, with a review and update every five years. In 2019, as part of the 127 Comprehensive Plan, the Parks and Recreation Commission reviewed the goals and policies and 128 made only minor modifications. A complete system-wide needs assessment has not been 129 conducted since the original plan was adopted in 2010.
130

131 Staff indicated that while the principles aligned with the plan's goals are likely still valid, some 132 projects have been bypassed or remain unsettled. Although much of the plan has been 133 implemented, several priorities remain outstanding, including updates to outdoor picnic
134 pavilions, aggregated athletic fields, and community center amenities.
135

136 Given demographic shifts since 2010, changing recreation trends, aging infrastructure, and the 137 influence of environmental and societal changes on mental health, staff relayed their interest in 138 beginning a conversation on how to effectively move forward with system planning.
139

140 Staff outlined several possible approaches and considerations for the Commission regarding next 141 steps in updating and/or implementing the Parks and Recreation System Master Plan:

- 142 • Continue: Continue with the current Master Plan and Two-Year Strategies
 - 143 • Review: Commission review and validate/update the current Master Plan
 - 144 ○ Is the current plan valid
 - 145 ○ What priorities remain most critical
 - 146 ○ What emerging needs are missing
 - 147 ○ How should the community be engaged
 - 148 • Assess: Engage with the community and determine next steps
 - 149 ○ Statistical needs assessment
 - 150 ○ Community meetings
 - 151 ○ Surveys/feedback
 - 152 • Restart: New Master Plan Process
 - 153 ○ Community meetings
 - 154 ○ Statistical analysis
 - 155 ○ Benchmarking
 - 156 ○ New goals/policies
- 157

158 With several Commissioners set to conclude their terms this month, staff relayed that they sought
159 to capitalize on their experience and knowledge during the discussion of next steps for updating

160 and/or implementing the Parks and Recreation System Master Plan. As part of this discussion,
161 the Commission explored outreach options to connect with community members, including 162 targeted outreach, encouraging public participation at Commission meetings, and conducting 163 community surveys.

164
165 Commissioner Boulton noted that it may be helpful to have additional information on the 166 prioritization of items in the Asset Replacement Plan when reviewing the Master Plan. He also 167 suggested that, in reviewing the Master Plan, it may be beneficial to consider that amenities do
168 not necessarily need to be replaced like-for-like. Instead, they could be adjusted to address the 169 opportunity he believes the city has in expanding the diversity of facilities for all ages.

170
171 The Commission discussed opportunities to explore indoor recreation options or private 172 partnerships to meet changing needs.

173
174 Commissioner Brown suggested that the Commission review the Master Plan by section at 175 subsequent meetings to better understand the questions and topics to be posed to the community.

176
177 Commissioner Kooistra suggested that when reviewing the Master Plan, it may be helpful to 178 utilize the findings from Envision Roseville as a guiding framework for the conversation,
179 community engagement, and restructuring of the updated plan, as that data is readily available.
180 He also recommended ensuring that there is an accessible way for the public to review and 181 understand the Master Plan.

182
183 Staff acknowledged the importance of creating an accessible document for the public to ensure 184 transparency on priorities, tangible actions, and overall plan summaries. Staff confirmed that this 185 idea should remain a priority in ongoing conversations about the Master Plan updates.

186
187 e) MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS CENTER UPDATE

188 The city issued a Request for Proposal (RFP) to architecture firms to evaluate the condition of 189 the current facilities and explore potential ways to better utilize them, in order to mitigate the 190 impact of not having funding for the license center/wellness studio. The RFP has closed, and a
191 significant number of proposals have been received and are currently being scored. Staff
192 anticipates that an award for the work will be made within the next month. Additionally, the City
193 Council has decided to move forward with the implementation of the funding sales tax.

194
195 5. OTHER BUSINESS

196 a) DEPARTMENTAL UPDATES

- 197
- 198 • Summer program registration opened this morning at 8:00 a.m., and over 1,370 program 199 registration transactions took place within the 7.5 hours since registration became available.
 - The John Rose MN OVAL is now closed for the season.

- The City Council has authorized staff to move forward with the recommendations for updates at Rosebrook Park, as discussed at the January 2025 Parks and Recreation Commission meeting. The next steps involve staff meeting with a landscape architect and issuing RFPs for the playground and splash pad.
- The subsidized Tree Sale will open on March 7, with 150 trees available for purchase (nine tree species) at $40 each.
- Arts @ the OVAL will be held on March 15 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Roseville Skating Center.
- Tapping Time will be held on March 22 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and March 23 from 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Harriet Alexander Nature Center.
- Two bike racks have been added to the park system, with another to be added at Central Park Lexington once the ground thaws.

The Commission discussed the fate of recreation equipment once it is removed. Staff relayed that the city has previously donated such equipment to other countries, as it cannot be used in the United States due to safety requirements.
